

PARTICIPANT

Charité University Berlin Charité University Hospital / Berlin / Schmitz Lab is recognized for participating in the International Laboratory Freezer Challenge, one of thousands of lab teams to do so. Their efforts implementing cold storage best practices have contributed to 86.462 kWh avoided across all participating labs.

Challenge Score: 11.0233

Estimated Energy Savings: 12 kWh/day

Awarded: July 30, 2025

James Connelly

Chief Executive Officer
My Green Lab

Gordon P. Sharp

President, International Institute for Sustainable Laboratories

